FIRST COMPANY OF ENGINEER CORPS IS CALLED INTO CAMP

Charleroi Men Receive Notification to Report at Oakmont

TENTH RECRUITING STARTED

Capt. Hartland Told to Proceed With Swearing Men Into Service—Understood Orders for Mobilization in July Will be Issued Soon

Orders for the mobilization of the first company of the Fifth United States Regiment of Engineers have been issued with tomorrow set for the time of reporting at the Oakmont camp of the regiment. The first company, in which are included two Charleroi men, will be known as Company A. Capt. Elmer K. Miles was temporarily made captain of the company and other officers were assigned. It is expected that other companies will be called out Saturday to begin work of preparation for active service in France. Frank B. Myers and Strauss "Whitey" Farrell both of Charleroi have been ordered to report in the first group.

The postal card orders to the men selected for Company A were mailed Monday and each man was ordered to bring with him a suit of clothing, an overcoat if possible and a plate, knife, fork and spoon. Uniforms have not yet arrived.

Work of recruiting up the Tenth Regiment, N. G. P. to war strength, ready for mobilization probably in July at Mount Gretna, has been started. Capt. E. W. Hartland of Monongahela in communication with headquarters at Greensburg Monday received instructions to recruit his command to war strength and immediately enlisted 25 men, swearing them into service.

Though nothing of definite nature has been given out, it is understood that Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart has received instructions from the War department relative to the movement of Pennsylvania troops and that in line with this he shortly will issue orders for mobilization. It is practically established, say those who are in position to know, that the Tenth will not be called from their home station until the early part of July. They will be taken to Mount Gretna and will spend practically the balance of the summer at that place, and getting their equipment up to perfection. In the early fall it is stated they will be taken to the southland to continue training under General Leonard Wood.

There was much activity at the Pittsburgh recruiting stations Monday. Following were the enlistments from Charleroi and vicinity.

Army—Charles J. Dunham, Allen B. Kinder, North Charleroi.

Engineers Reserve Corps—William J. Ritchie, Harvey J. Adams, Charleroi.

Navy—James W. Rutledge, Charles A. Kuhns, John L. Davidson, Fayette City; Joseph M. Jennings, North Charleroi.

Naval Coast Defense Reserve—James Yeardley, John J. F. Killeen, Donora; James M. Thirkield, Fayette City.

Please do not throw away your old clothes. Give us a call. We pay good prices. H. Schaffer, Bell Phone 55-M, Fifth street and Fallowfield, opposite Bank of Charleroi 286-15

CHARLEROI ORDER OF MOOSE WILL PURCHASE LIBERTY BONDS

Action Taken by Trustees at Regular Meeting to Buy Two—In Accord With Belief of Order.

At the regular meeting of the trustees of Charleroi lodge No. 103, Loyal Order of Moose it was voted to purchase two liberty bonds, a duty the order believes all fraternal organizations owes at this time. The belief of the Moose is that fraternal orders are composed mostly of married men who take up this kind of insurance for protection for their wives and families, but who nevertheless are ready to go at the call for married men. By buying the bonds the Moose feel they are in accord with the President's plea. Trustees of Charleroi lodge of Moose are F. G. Bailey, Walter Jack and J. W. Mathias.

CAMBRIA STEEL TO OPEN OFFICES

Preparations Being Made for Operation of Washington County Mines

RENT MONONGAHELA LOCATION

That the Cambria Steel company will shortly open its offices in Monongahela from which to conduct the business of its mines in the Pigeon Creek valley, is evidenced by the steps being taken to fit up the offices in the Odella building in Main street. A lease was taken on this suite of offices some weeks ago.

Recently the company moved its main offices from the Fulton to the Henry W. Oliver building in Pittsburgh and this change has held up the work on the Monongahela offices.

The Cambria Steel recently purchased the Union Coal company holdings, formerly the Pittsburgh-Westmoreland company stock. It has been rumored that the Ellsworth mines also changed hands in the deal but this is not considered true. With the possible exception of Ellsworth this gives the Cambria Steel control of all of the mines in the Pigeon Creek valley, except the Sedan mine of the Pittsburgh-Youghiogheny Coal company at Van Vorhis.

It is said to be the plan of the company to operate all of its mines from the general office in Monongahela. General Superintendent Simpson will be in charge.

DAILY SPRINKLING OF DOWN TOWN BUSINESS STREETS TO BE URGED OF BOROUGH COUNCIL

Delegation of Business Men Expecting to Attend Special Meeting—Merchants Complain of Dust on Display Counters

Daily sprinkling of down town business streets will be urged by a number of business men tonight when they attend a special meeting of the borough council. The movement is one for the alleviation of a condition which exists chiefly on McKean and Fallowfield avenues and for the adjustment of complaints from business men and residents along these streets.

Merchants complain it is almost impossible with present conditions to keep their goods clean which are on display. Housekeepers along the down town streets voice the same complaint. In the hill sections the complaints are not the same, but frequent sprinkling there is a desire. Washington and Lincoln avenues, leading out of town are in bad shape from dust and dirt.

Some of the dust along McKean avenue comes from the unimproved surroundings of the freight station, as well as from the slag and other material almost continually being unloaded for use on nearby roads.

WHEELING SECURES THOMPSON TO MAKE FLIGHTS DECORATION DAY

Wheeling is to have a day of thrills on May 30th. DeLoyd Thompson will give three of his amazing flights at the West Virginia State fair grounds on May 30, racing against a motorcycle rider and an automobile driver and blowing up a fort from the sky. The Wheeling Motorcycle Club is getting Thompson there.

The motorcycle enthusiasts saw Thompson fly at Uniontown during the opening of the Speedway there a week ago, and so impressed were they with the sensational loop the loop and upside down flying of Thompson that they made him manager a proposition. It took a week to arrange Thompson's itinerary so that he could go to Wheeling.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES ATTEND PRESENTATION OF SCHOOL FLAG

WILL GIVE THIEF WHO STOLE SACK OF FLOUR ANOTHER IF HE CALLS

Opinion of Charity Board is That Man Who Would Steal From Poor Family Must Indeed be Needy

Considering that a person who would steal a sack of flour given to poor family must indeed be a needy soul, the Associated Board of Charities, represented by Health Officer William Darby, has offered to donate another sack of flour to that already stolen if the thief will make known his identity. Last Saturday a poor family was supplied with a sack of flour. It was taken to their home on Meadow avenue near Tenth street. It was not there long, a thief having visited the place.

OUR PATRIOTISM

It is not too late to comment on the Charleroi's greatest celebration, the patriotic demonstration last Saturday.
It was a demonstration with an effect.

The object was to inculcate in the thousands who came to attend the events of the day a greater spirit of patriotism than they already possessed. If something was not done to impress them, the day was mis-pent indeed.

The flag raising was the first event of importance. Who is there to deny the impressiveness of it or the thrill?
None! Indeed was the human flag and all the more impressive were the exercises because of it. Fine was the singing of the children, the playing of the bands. But all was with one grand purpose, that of teaching patriotism.

In times of peace, when our attention is not constantly focused on such things, we are prone to forget a few of the common tributes of respect to the flag. We forget sometimes to stand in reverence as we hear the national anthem or neglect to remove our hats as it is played by a band. The ceremony Saturday was to remind us of our duty. That someone did not hearken gave evidence that patriotic demonstrations are all too infrequent.

The parade of the evening was a wonderful pageant. It was impressive because of the enthusiasm manifested by domestic and foreign societies. Its teaching was similar to that of the flag raising and it was significant because of the spirit of national pride evinced. This community simply told the nation that it would stand behind the president and the flag, thousands strong, and fight for the liberty which means so much to all.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The Bible class teacher in a certain Sunday school was extremely annoyed at the noise made by pupils, in the next room. At last, unable to stand it any longer, he looked over the partition and, seeing one boy talking louder than the others, he leaned over the partition and, banging him into a chair, said:
"No le-quiet!"

Some minutes later a small head appeared over the partition and a meek voice said:
"Please, sir, you've not our teacher."

After her third day's attendance at school, Pauline was retelling at home-stories of her classmates' naughtiness.

"That's bad," commented mamma

"Don't the teacher have to correct that?"
"No," Pauline assured her. "She can't speak to all the class but must after her own."

PROMINENT DOCTORS EXCITED AND AMAZED

THEY ARE WORKED UP OVER THE ACTION OF PHOSPHATED IRON MAKING THE WEAK STRONG

Victims of weak nerves and rundown systems due to lack of pure blood will be glad to know that there is, according to the best physicians, a reliable remedy for them.

Many who were steadily growing down hill to permanent illness and nervous breakdown have regained perfect health by taking PHOS-PHATED IRON, the new blood in-nervine food.

One elderly woman said, "I was all in, looked and felt like the last run-of shad, was clear discouraged without ambition or appetite. Now look at me. I have the good health and bubbling spirits of a girl of eighteen, eat and sleep well. It made a new man of my husband too. And though we are well along in years we both face the future with confidence, knowing that as long as our blood is charged with good health, giving Iron and Phosphates we are safe."

Again a bookkeeper who used it says: "If ever a man had a case of nerves it was me. I could not sleep at night, the least sound made me jump, appetite gone, everything was up hill work and I felt myself slipping every day. My doctor said:
'Try Phosphated Iron, it is the exact remedy you require.' The first week I improved; my nerves steadied down so that I slept, my appetite and digestion improved, and it seemed to me that I could almost feel the Phosphates and Iron feeding my weak watery blood and tired nerves. I now weigh 25 lbs. more than I ever did, and much stronger."

A prominent physician to whom the above statements were submitted said: "Yes, PHOSPHATED IRON is easily the most wonderful Iron prescription yet discovered, its ingredients are well known to all blood and nerve specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice and cured many patients where other physicians had failed. I can highly recommend it for all cases of weak nerves and poor blood, as well as general loss of tone, with absence of appetite, it seldom fails me in this class of cases."

Special Notice. To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, we have put up in capsules only. Do not let dealers give you tablets or pills. Insist on capsules. W. F. Hennings,

WOMEN DOING MEN'S WORK

One of the most striking results of the great war in Europe, is the extent to which women are doing the work of men. Travellers to England and France report that practically every able-bodied man is in uniform and women by the thousands are engaged in doing men's work—acting as conductors and drivers on the cars and doing all sorts of heavy work previously.

This shows unexpected possibilities in what has been mistakenly called the weaker sex. Women are subject to ailments which men do not have, when so ailing become weak, helpless sufferers. But a remedy has been found. For forty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making such women well and strong, and as able to do work as any other woman.

Grated Coconut, 1 cupful of butter, 1 cupful of granulated sugar, 2 eggs, 1/2 cupful of cocoa, 1/2 cupful of flour, 2 1/2 level teaspoons of baking

Cream butter and sugar until light; baking powder, the coconut which has been pressed dry in fruit press, or in a strainer, fold in and add the rest of flour. Place on bottom rack in moderate oven, bake 45 minutes.

Try with darning needle. If smooth, cake is done, if not bake five to eight minutes longer. It is hard to give exact time to bake, as there is a difference in ovens.

The cake will keep a week (if kept

PIRATES WILL PLAY TWO GAMES MAY 30

On Decoration day, May 30, the Pittsburg Pirates will play two games as usual at Forbes Field, the morning game being called at 10:30, and the afternoon game at 3 o'clock.
The Chicago Cubs will be the attraction that day. Manager Mitchell has the Bruins going in championship form, and as the Corsairs, with the acquisition of first baseman "Bunny" Brief, are now in a fair way to become one of the flag contenders themselves in the National League race, these two games should be sizzling affairs.

First base was the weak spot in the Buccaneers' lineup and as Brief, the Pacific coast star, has shown himself to be a real performer, there is no reason now why the Pittsburg owners should not be able to hold its own with any of them.

With Hinchman again in the outfield the combination of Schulte, Carey and Hinchman in the outer gardens certainly looks as sweet as any either of the big circuits on the defense; and as to offensive strength, as Bunny Brief is also somewhat of a fence buster himself, having 23 home runs to his credit last year and a clean batting average of .314, it would look as if the Pirate lineup now has the punch it has so long needed.
The new first baseman is 6 feet tall, weighs 135 pounds and as he is out 25 years old, he fits in nicely with President Dreyfuss' idea of building up his new machine with young matter, that once it gets to going right will be good for several years to come.

Mail orders will be filed as usual for the Decoration Day games. Address all orders to the Pittsburg Baseball Club, Farmers Bank Building, Pittsburg. After the Chicago series the Corsairs will remain at Forbes Field for practically the entire month of June, meeting every team in the league during that time.

Riverside Grove, Dunlevy will open for the season next Saturday. Dancing every Tuesday and Saturday.
Open dates for picnics. 269-t3-ead

Although there has been an adjustment of the political affairs of troubled Russia, A. F. Kerensky, Minister of Justice, fears that there is disaster ahead unless the new government quickly adjusts itself to new condi-were directed in part at the army, which has been inactive on the Eastern front, and he warned the soldiers against the danger of fraternizing with

DRUG STORE LIQUOR DEALERS SENTENCED

Two Must Go Out of Business and One Must Discontinue Keeping Spirituous Liquors in His Store—Judge McIlvaine Comments on Cases

The second week of criminal court was convened Monday afternoon. Cases are listed for trial up to and including Wednesday. In several, pleas have been entered and that means this term will soon be over. There will be no common pleas court this term, so that when criminal court adjourns this week there will be no more trial court until the August term of criminal court.

W. H. DeFord, proprietor of the North Main Street pharmacy, Washington and R. G. Doyle, proprietor of the Red Cross drug store, West Chestnut street, Washington entered pleas of guilty Monday to violations of the liquor laws. Each was paroled on the payment of the costs and fine of $500 each. Other conditions are also imposed. Mr. DeFord must not handle or sell any vinous, malt or brewed liquors. He is allowed to keep on hands a small quantity of alcohol, simply to be used in connection with his legitimate drug business. His parole is for a period of two years and in violation of the conditions he must undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for five months. His store is to be open to the inspection of the probation officer at all times.

Mr. Doyle must go out of business at once, in addition to paying a fine of $500 and the costs. In violation of his parole he must undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for five months.

Alexander Hoey of Canonsburg, running an alleged drug store there, also admitted violations of the liquor laws. He must at once get out of business. Hoey, it was stated to the court, was convicted heretofore of selling liquor and in that former case all the costs have not been paid. The condition in the present case, under which he is paroled, is that he pay a fine of $700, which covers the costs in the other case and pay the costs. In violation of his parole he must undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for five months.

John Pagano, who acted as a solicitor for Hoey, was sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $500 and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months. However if he pays the costs he will be paroled under the usual conditions.

Donato DiVitis of Canonsburg, entered a plea of guilty to selling liquor without license. It was an ordinary case. The defendant is now regularly employed and out of the business. He was paroled on payment of costs.

Judge McIlvaine in passing on the drug store cases stated that even though a druggist sold under a prescription that might not protect him. A physician he stated was only permitted to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquors, where an examination is made and it is prescribed for medical purposes. The court said a druggist was liable for "retention" as well as a druggist.

Each shall have come—if they ever do—the women of the United States will be ready to take the places of the men in many trades and most professions. There will be the woman butcher, the woman baker and the woman candle-stick-maker, and, indeed, "she" takes the place of "he" and fills his job with an efficiency that could not be questioned.

Across the Atlantic man's sphere is. They are all engaged in the tasks of training with the single idea of becoming proficient beyond question. The "fill the boots" of the men who are latest recruits are the railroad women, certain to be called away. The picture group only illustrates how the women of America are grooming themselves to do man's work. OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM.

Rules That Army Men Must Always Obey When It Is Played.

In view of the fact that many persons appear doubtful as to proper action when "The Star Spangled Banner" is played the army regulations, applying to members of the army only, are here presented.

Paragraph 378.—Whenever the national anthem is played at any place where persons belonging to the military service are present all officers and enlisted men in uniform shall stand at attention and face toward the music, except retreat, when they shall face toward the flag. If in uniform, covered or uncovered, or in civilian clothes, covered or uncovered, they shall salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining the position of salute until the last note of the anthem.

"If not in uniform, covered, they shall uncover at the first note of the anthem, holding the headress opposite the left shoulder, and so remain until its close, except that in inclement weather the headress may be held slightly raised.

"When played by any army band the national anthem shall be played through without repetition of any part not required to be repeated to make it complete.

"Paragraph 204.—The playing of the national anthem of any country as part of a medley is prohibited."

No Parallels in Nature.

The wise men say there are no parallels in nature, that no one thing in the wide universe exactly mates and matches any other one thing, that each cloud has differed from every other cloud form in any hour of the day and night or day or yesterday, and so on back through the forgotten centuries, and no two leaves in form, color or texture lift the same faces to the sun on any day of the millions of years; that no wave on any beach curves and falls as any wave has curved and fallen before, not since this planet cooled. And so it is with the whirls and the crystals of driving snow, with the sand and splash of rain and so, too, with the flight of birds, the dash and tumble of the restless brook and the roar of lawless thunder and the cry of birds.—F. Hopkinson Smith.

PATRIOTIC CANNERY DEvised BY WOMEN AS NEEDED SERVICE

The Equal Suffrage association of California, at a meeting a few days ago, decided that a very practical service could be rendered at this time by the establishment of a cannery center. The plan is to select the neighboring farmers for their surplus vegetables and fruit which they are unable to market, much of which goes to waste each year, and to can and preserve them. The canned goods will be held in a large until the coming winter, when the product will be sold at moderate prices to those in greatest need. Not only the suffragists but practically every woman in the town has entered into this worthy and patriotic work.

To finance the movement stock will be sold in the "Patriotic Cannery" at one cent per share, assistance being given to stockholders that they will derive dividends next winter in averting a possible food crisis in California.

The following well known women form the committee in charge: Mrs. C. N. Savage, Mrs. Ella N. Richardson, Miss Garnet Myers, Mrs. W. S. Heitzog and Mrs. Max Yoffee.

JOLLIFICATION HELD BY HIGH SCHOOL TO CELEBRATE VICTORY

At the conclusion of the regular chapel exercises at high school Monday morning, a jollification meeting was held, at which time the medals and ribbons won by the members of the local track team at Washington, on Saturday, were presented to them by Prof. T. L. Pollock, superintendent of schools. In all the members of the Charleroi team captured eighteen medals, for a total of twenty-four. This was something to be proud of, and when the members of the track team appeared on the stage at the auditorium this morning, they were greeted with three rousing cheers by the student body. Each athlete made a few remarks, giving his impression of the team's work at Washington.

Prof. S. R. Grimm, principal of the high school officiated as coach of the track team for several years past, and much of the glory gained by the Charleroi high school track teams can be traced to the diligent and painstaking efforts put forth by him in conditioning the participants. The services rendered by Paul Nutt were recognized by the student body with a rousing cheer. Everybody being so happy over the result at Washington, the remainder of the morning session was declared to be a holiday.

CRUEL TREATMENT ALLEGED IN DIVORCE SUIT FROM CHARLEROI

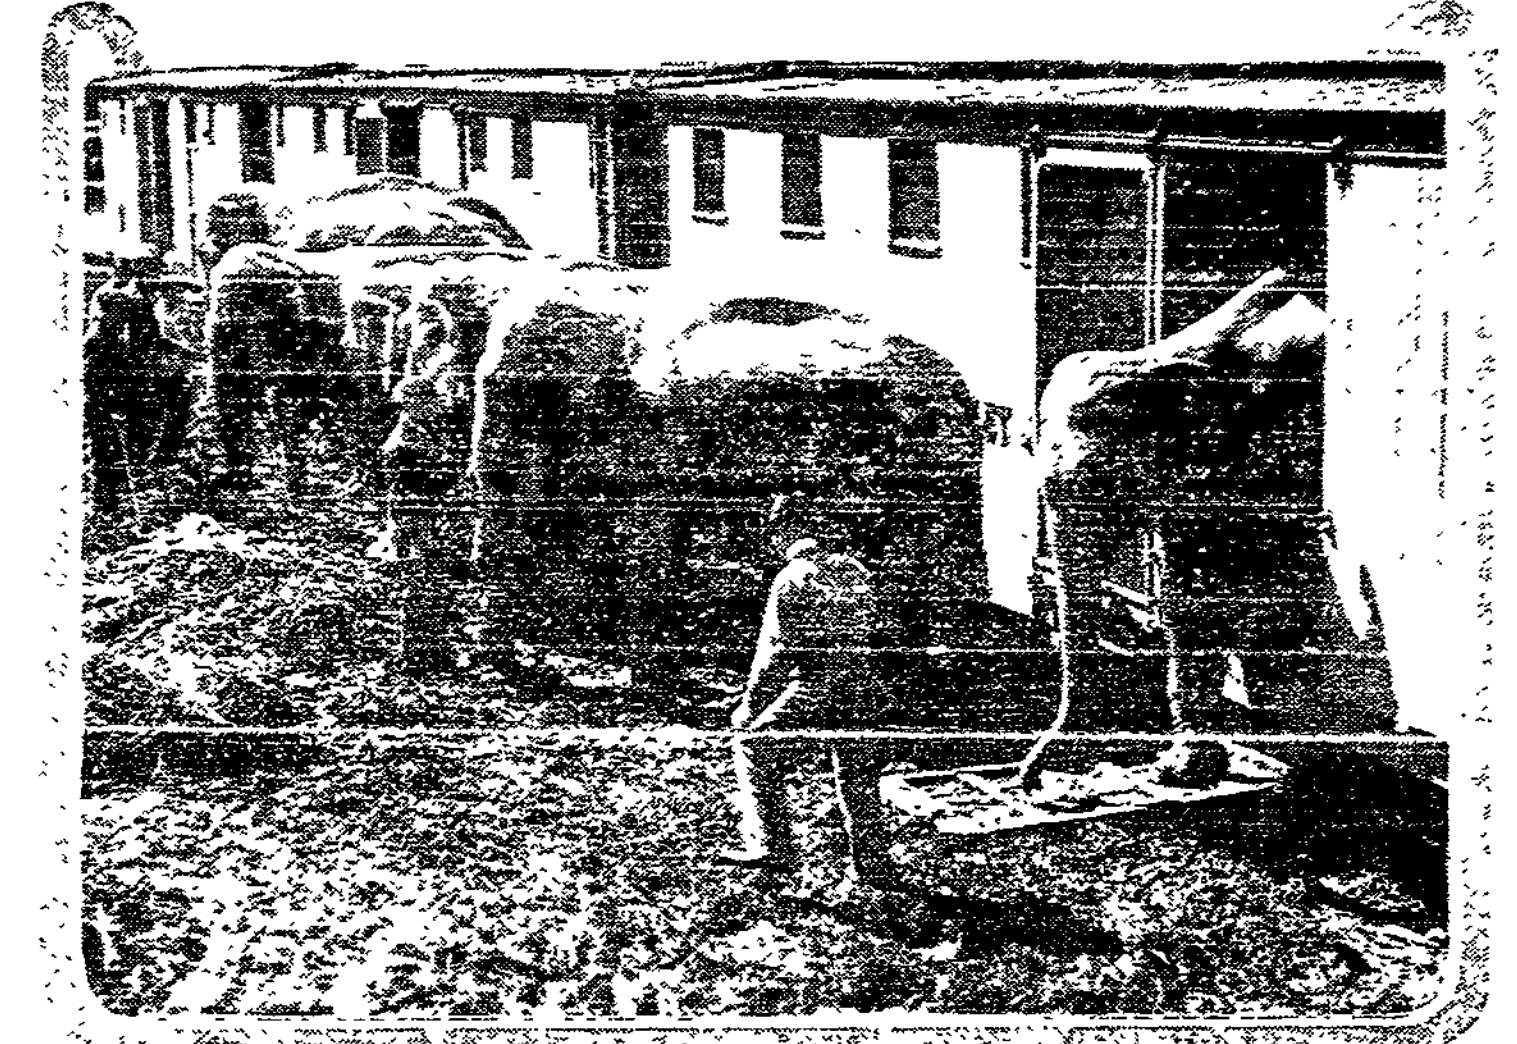

In the divorce suit of Lucy Emerson against Edward E. Emerson the testimony has been filed. Separation is sought on the ground of cruel and barbarous treatment. The libellant resided at Charleroi and was married to the respondent on January 7, 1915. They resided at Donora after their marriage. One child was born to them. The libellant says her husband often got angry at her and would beat her. She tried to get along with him, for their boy's sake. She says she was good and kind to her husband, and never complained of her treatment. She kept the facts from her parents because they had objected to her marrying the respondent. His treatment did not get any better, and he kept ordering her to go and live with her parents. Finally they did go and live with her parents. Her husband went away afterward to Cleveland, O.; but refused to send her money to follow him. He returned later and they again began living together. This was at Charleroi. That time they were together but two weeks, during which time she says he beat and kicked her. On one occasion he struck her when she had the baby in her arms and as a result of that blow the child has one side paralyzed. Still later he chased her from the house. Since that time she has not lived with him.

Barnum and Bailey Shows Will Arrive Early For The Saturday Performance

While the inhabitants sleep next with tons of new canvas, poles, flags and bunting for the 32 tents. Friday night a great modern caravan, comprising eighty-nine private cars will be drawn toward the city of Charleroi by four of the massive engines of the Pennsylvania railroad. The freight of this caravan will be the great Barnum & Bailey circus which gives its performance on the circus lots at Charleroi at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The circus will be transported from Greensburg. Before dawn Saturday morning the four sections will have arrived in the Pennsylvania railroad yards and the work of unloading will begin. The first section to arrive is what is known as the "Flying Squadron," containing the commissary (ovens, steam cookers, utensils, cooks and waiters) and the animals, both wild and domestic, numbering in all more than 2,000. This will be unloaded and on their way to the circus lot before the arrival of the second and third sections which carry the red wagons. After the tents are put in place and breakfast is served to nearly 2,000 persons, there will commence the preparations for the street parade which this year will be a greater event than ever before. More than three miles in length this brilliant procession will leave the circus grounds at 10 o'clock sharp. There will be beautiful floats, tableau wagons containing richly attired girls in representation of the stories of fairyland. Allegorical cars whose sides are of twenty-two carat gold, representing an outlay in precious metal alone of more than $15,000, 40 elephants, 750 horses, 35 camels, open cages of wild animals and 1,300 persons. Six bands, three steam organs (calliopes) and a compressed air piano will furnish the music while the merry as the procession moves along. In all this great cavalcade, representing an outlay in money of more than $1,000,000.

there are a number of insect enemies which may undo all of his careful methods of cultivation, says today's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, which is cooperating with this paper to increase food garden planting. Not only insects, but plant diseases add to the mortality of garden crops. There is nothing in the outlook; however, to cause even the beginner to despair. Many a garden will get through the season without injury of any kind from bugs, worms, or diseases; but if the garden should be attacked the remedies are simple, easily applied, and not expensive. In case of heavy invasions complete success in combating them is not to be expected. The plant diseases that can be fought off are all due to some fungus or other. Insects destroy plants by eating them. The beginner should have it clearly in mind that destructive garden insects fall roughly into two classes—those that feed on the plant by chewing it up and swallowing it, and those that suck the sap by tapping it with their beaks. In general fungus is kept off plants by spraying the leaves with poisonous mixtures, the best known and widely used of which is called Bordeaux mixture. Pulverized sulphur dusted in plants is used to control mildew. Chewing insects, such as potato bugs, cabbage worms, cut worms, and others, can be killed by spraying poison on the plants or mixing it with bait which the insects will eat. Sucking insects—squash bugs and melon lice are in this class cannot be poisoned; so they are killed by poisonous spray mixtures coming in contact with their bodies. The next bulletin will tell how to mix some of these sprays.

Boosting Liberty Bond
The National Emergency Food Garden Commission of Washington today turned its tremendous publicity force to helping boost the sale of the Liberty Bond by stamping all of its printed matter "Plant A Garden and Buy a Liberty Bond."

This stamp is being placed on every envelope which the commission sends out in the course of a week in its nation wide campaign for more food gardens. Ten thousand of these go out every week. Then too the stamp is placed upon all of the printed matter that is sent out.

Co-operating with this commission are two million members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the U. S. and two million members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of the U. S. to say nothing of thousands of banks that are giving the food garden primer out to patrons. The Rotary Clubs of the country, several railroads, the Women's Suffrage League of a dozen states and the Garden Club of America are among other organizations co-operating with the commission which this paper is working. Thus it will be seen that the Liberty Bond will get a wonderful amount of publicity it would not otherwise have.
